

Getting Started

Opgave 2 - Forklar betydningsforskelle

I nedenstående sætninger optræder verballedet både i simpel og udvidet tid. Forklar betydningsforskellen for hvert sætningspar.

1.a. Peter is eating an apple.

1.b. Peter eats an apple every day.

2.a. Emma was crying, when she watched the new movie with Tom Hanks.

2.b. Emma always cries when she watches movies with Tom Hanks.

3.a. Please, close the door!

3.b. Peter is closing the door.

4.a. My father cooks dinner every evening.

4.b. My father is cooking dinner, while my mother is cleaning her car.

5.a. Adam often complains about his homework.

5.b. Adam is complaining about his homework.

6.a. I am reading a new book.

6.b. I read as often as I can.

Getting Started

Opgave 4 - Oversæt til engelsk

1. Oversæt følgende sætninger til engelsk.

1. Janet er ved at gøre sig klar til at tage af sted.
2. Peter står altid tidligt op.
3. Peter drikker for meget kaffe.
4. Peter står og drikker en kop kaffe.
5. Børnene er ved at lære at læse.
6. De læser en side i bogen hver dag.
7. Se, solen står op nu!
8. Jeg sidder og læser i min nye bog.
9. Se, min bror ligger og sover.
10. Janet er ved at skrive et julekort til sin bedstemor.
11. Hun ringer til sine forældre hver søndag.
12. Da du kom, var jeg ved at læse i min nye bog.
13. Jeg går og tænker på næste sommerferie.

2. Lav en liste med de vendinger, der på dansk står i stedet for udvidet tid på engelsk.

Getting Started

Opgave 7 - Find, ret og forklar fejl

Diskuter brugen af udvidet tid i følgende sætninger. Hvilke sætninger er korrekte, og hvilke er forkerte? Ret de forkerte sætninger, og forklar fejlene.

1. Peter is playing football every Monday.
2. While Peter is playing football, Emma is visiting friends.
3. He is always working very hard.
4. She's watching television while I play on the computer.
5. She is sitting and reading a book.
6. Look, my brother plays tennis.
7. We are always getting up late at the weekend.
8. I can't help you right now, I watch television.
9. I always go for a walk in the afternoon.
10. Emma is sitting and thinking about her new job.
11. He had been working all day, while everybody else had done nothing.
12. I am listening to music, while I do my homework.
13. Every morning we are getting up too early.